Visit to 14th Street Pizza:

The children and dedicated staff of SOS Multan embarked on a heartwarming excursion, thanks to the generosity of Dr. Muhammad Haris. Their destination was none other than the esteemed 14th Street Pizza, where delectable moments unfolded.

SOS Multan, a charitable organization, recently enjoyed a heartwarming outing to 14th Street Pizza, courtesy of Dr. Muhammad Haris. The children and dedicated staff were greeted by the alluring scent of freshly baked pizzas upon their arrival at the esteemed pizzeria.

Within the vibrant ambiance of 14th Street Pizza, the children relished an exceptional culinary experience. They delighted in a variety of mouthwatering pizzas and the warmth of togetherness. Dr. Haris's generosity left a profound impact on the children, underscoring the significance of community and kindness.

This visit to 14th Street Pizza transformed a simple meal into a symbol of care, generosity, and the joy that arises from shared moments with friends and benefactors, illustrating the importance of such acts of compassion in the community.

Visit by Ms. Sumiya Muneer, Social Welfare Officer:

Ms. Sumiya Muneer, a distinguished Social Welfare Officer, recently visited the SOS Children's Village in Multan with the genuine intention of gaining insights into the institution's operations. Her presence at the facility was warmly received, and the staff eagerly shared the organization's mission and activities. During her visit, Ms. Muneer was provided with a comprehensive overview of the services offered to underprivileged children, leaving her deeply impressed by the dedication and care demonstrated by the staff in providing a nurturing environment.

Ms. Muneer's visit also underscored the crucial role of social welfare officers in connecting government support and services to organizations like the SOS Children's Village. This highlighted the significance of collaboration between government agencies and non-governmental organizations to create a more compassionate and supportive society. Her departure from the facility was marked by a sense of awe and inspiration, recognizing the remarkable impact of the SOS Children's Village in Multan.

This visit emphasized that when individuals like Ms. Muneer engage with such initiatives with an open heart and a shared commitment to the welfare of the less fortunate, it fosters mutual understanding, admiration, and the potential for even greater collaboration in the future. It served as a powerful reminder of the importance of cooperation in the pursuit of social welfare, showcasing the transparent dedication of the SOS Children's Village and its potential to contribute to a brighter future for underprivileged children in our society.

Visit by Mr. Zahur Hussain, Secretary of Social Welfare Punjab:

Mr. Zahur Hussain, Secretary of Social Welfare Punjab, made a notable visit to the SOS Children's Village Multan, symbolizing the government's commitment to supporting organizations dedicated to child welfare. Upon his arrival, he was warmly welcomed by the staff and children at the village and taken on a comprehensive tour. This tour provided Mr. Zahur with a firsthand understanding of the organization's operations and its nurturing environment for orphaned and vulnerable children.

During the visit, a documentary shed light on the history, mission, and heartwarming stories of the children who found a home at the SOS Children's Village. This visual journey underscored the significance of the organization's work in providing love, education, and support to children in need. Mr. Zahur's visit demonstrated his genuine interest in the welfare of underprivileged children, surpassing the realm of administrative duties.

During the visit, Mr. Zahur delivered laptops that were generously donated under the PM Youth Scheme, which were facilitated through the National Office of SOS Children's Villages of Pakistan. This donation further exemplified the government's commitment to supporting organizations dedicated to child welfare and providing essential resources to enhance the education and opportunities for underprivileged children at the SOS Children's Village Multan.

As the visit concluded, Mr. Zahur expressed his appreciation for the impactful work being done at the SOS Children's Village Multan, receiving gratitude and enthusiasm from both staff and children. This visit highlighted the potential for ongoing collaboration between government officials and institutions like SOS Children's Village to create a more compassionate and supportive society, making a meaningful impact on the lives of children in need.

Milad Sharif Celebration at SOS Children's Village Multan:

A heartwarming Milad Sharif celebration recently unfolded at the SOS Children's Village Multan, marking the spirit of Eid Milad-un-Nabi, in reverence of the teachings of Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H). This special occasion brought together the female administrative staff, the girls under their care, and the dedicated house mothers, fostering an atmosphere filled with devotion and unity, in the spirit of the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H)'s guidance.

The Milad Sharif event was a beautiful expression of faith and love for the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H). Recitations of naats resonated throughout, serving as a reminder of the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H)'s teachings of compassion, kindness, and empathy, which closely align with the mission of SOS Children's Village. Inspirational speeches further encouraged the girls to embody these noble qualities in their daily lives, in keeping with the guidance of Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H).

Beyond being a religious observance, the Milad Sharif celebration was a profound bonding experience that nurtured togetherness and unity among the female administrative staff, girls, and house mothers, following the values of love, respect, and community spirit deeply ingrained in SOS Children's Village Multan's mission. As the event concluded, participants left with their hearts filled with faith and a strong sense of belonging, reaffirming that within the SOS Children's Village Multan, faith, community, and love thrive, guided by the teachings of the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H).

Visit to Ramada by Wyndham for the Kitchen Queens Event:

The staff and young girls from SOS Children's Village Multan recently embarked on an exciting journey to Ramada by Wyndham for the highly anticipated Kitchen Queens event, fostering a day of joy and camaraderie. This event not only showcased their culinary talents but also provided a unique opportunity to connect with the local community. The highlight of their visit was the baked cupcakes lovingly prepared by the girls, which quickly became a crowd favorite at the event. Witnessing their creations appreciated and enjoyed brought heartwarming joy to the girls.

The Kitchen Queens event extended beyond cupcakes, serving as a celebration of diverse culinary talents. Attendees shared their homemade goods, relishing each other's creations. The members of SOS Multan embraced the occasion with enthusiasm, indulging in the delicious offerings and connecting with fellow participants. The event not only provided a fun and enjoyable day for the girls and staff but also allowed them to explore their culinary interests and strengthen their sense of unity and belonging.

Moreover, this visit had a broader impact as it promoted SOS Children's Village Multan to a wider audience. Attendees of the Kitchen Queens event gained insight into the organization's mission and the talents of its residents, raising awareness and fostering support and goodwill within the community. The visit to Ramada by Wyndham for the Kitchen Queens event transcended culinary exploration, delivering a day of joy, camaraderie, and an opportunity to share the love and talents nurtured within the SOS Children's Village, reaffirming the power of community engagement.

Visit on International Stuttering Day to Multan Marquee by Enlightened Multan:

The staff of SOS Multan received a special invitation from Enlightened Multan to commemorate International Stuttering Day with an event held at Multan Marquee. This event transformed into an opportunity to raise awareness about stuttering and deepen our understanding of this speech impediment. The day began with an informative seminar that delved into the complexities of stuttering. Experts in the field shared their knowledge and insights, shedding light on the challenges faced by individuals who stutter and emphasizing the importance of fostering a supportive and inclusive environment. This proved to be a valuable learning experience for all attendees, providing a deeper understanding of stuttering and ways to offer support to those affected.

The seminar served as a catalyst for change, inspiring the staff from SOS Multan to reflect on how they could create a more inclusive and empathetic environment within their organization. The event underscored the significance of listening without judgment, practicing patience, and offering compassion when interacting with individuals who stutter. International Stuttering Day at Multan Marquee transcended being just an event; it became a platform for personal growth and collective empathy, leaving attendees with a heightened appreciation for the challenges faced by those who stutter and a renewed commitment to fostering a more inclusive and understanding community.

This visit not only expanded the knowledge of the SOS Multan staff but also highlighted the importance of observing International Stuttering Day. It served as a reminder that, through awareness and education, we can contribute to creating a world that accommodates and supports all its members, regardless of their unique challenges. The event was graciously hosted by Enlightened Multan.

SOS Children's Home Multan

Visit by Ace Architectural & Town Planning Services Ltd:

Two engineers, including Chief Architect Ms. Lalarukh Warsi, undertook a visit to the SOS Children's Home in Multan, focusing on a specific mission: to acquire in-depth knowledge about the construction of the facility. The primary objective behind this visit was to glean valuable insights that would prove instrumental in their forthcoming project in Mian Chanu, where they aimed to establish a new SOS Children's Village.

During their visit to the SOS Children's Home in Multan, the architects neither interacted with the children nor provided any guidance or mentoring. Their engagement was confined to a comprehensive observation of the construction details. This study was essential for their future project in Mian Chanu, as it allowed them to familiarize themselves with the practical aspects of the construction. By focusing solely on this aspect of their visit, the architects ensured a thorough understanding of the existing structure and layout, which they intended to incorporate into their new design.

The architects' visit, despite its brevity and lack of interaction, underscored the importance of knowledge exchange in architectural planning. Their dedication to acquiring a deep understanding of the construction in Multan for application in Mian Chanu exemplified their commitment to their craft. This demonstrated how professionals, in their pursuit of excellence, seek to enhance their work by gleaning insights from existing structures, even when they do not directly involve community engagement or mentoring. This visit, while brief and devoid of interaction, exemplified the practical approach architects take in the pursuit of improving the built environment.

Time: 11:00 am to 12:30 pm

Objective of the Event:

The Eid Milad-un-Nabi (S.A.W) festival is to commemorate the birth anniversary of the Holy Prophet (S.A.W).

Event Highlights:

On the 28th of October, 2023, SOS Hermann Gmeiner Higher Secondary School Multan celebrated the Milad-un-Nabi (S.A.W) festival. The event took place in the Pre-Block of SOS school, which was beautifully adorned with vibrant lights and flowers.

The festivities began with a recitation of the Holy Quran, setting a spiritual tone for the occasion. Participants enthralled the audience with heartfelt Naats and enlightening speeches on the Seerat-un-Nabi (S.A.W), all of which were dedicated to the honor of our beloved Holy Prophet Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W). The primary objective of this activity was to shed light on various facets of the life of the greatest benefactor of mankind.

Following the Milad, Tabarruk (blessed food) was distributed among the participants, further fostering a sense of togetherness and unity.

Red Color Day Celebration:

Date: 6th October, 2023

Grade: PG to K.G – II

Objective of the Event:

Red Color Day is designed to assist children in sorting and classifying objects based on colors, thus enhancing their cognitive skills through hands-on learning experiences.

Event Summary:

On the 6th of October, 2023, our dedicated teachers organized an engaging Red Color Day. This vibrant event aimed to stimulate the cognitive development of our young learners by providing them with practical experiences related to colors.

The day saw an array of red-themed activities and decorations. Most teachers and students donned eye-catching red attire, and the classrooms were adorned with red color, creating a visually stimulating environment. Many teachers and students proudly displayed red handprints, and some students even wore red crowns and sashes bearing the titles "MISTER RED" and "MISS RED."

To add a musical touch to the occasion, Sir Umair Gill, our Music Teacher, performed a charming rendition of the poem "Three Red Apples" accompanied by captivating music.

The highlight of the event was a lunch sharing activity, where delicious red foods such as apples, cakes, and pastries were shared among teachers and students.

Our esteemed Vice Principal, Mrs. Kanwal Farooq, commended the teaching staff for their well-organized execution of the Red Colour Day, acknowledging their dedication and effort in creating a memorable experience for our young learners."

Teachers' Day Celebration:

Date: 5th October 2023

Objective of the Event:

The aim of this event was to express appreciation, acknowledge, and pay tribute to the invaluable contributions of teachers in shaping students' moral, intellectual, and spiritual growth.

Event Highlights:

On the 5th of October 2023, the school day began with a heartwarming gesture from our esteemed Vice Principal, Mrs. Kanwal Farooq. She bestowed all the teachers with beautiful Teachers' Day Badges as a token of appreciation. The students, filled with gratitude, extended warm greetings to their teachers by holding up flash cards that read, "Happy Teachers' Day."

The students also organized a special assembly, where they eloquently paid tribute to their dedicated teachers. Students from Grade 9th, 10th, 1st Year, and 2nd Year went the extra mile by cutting and serving delicious cakes to their teachers. They presented beautiful cards, flowers, and chocolates to express their deep gratitude and admiration.

The enthusiasm was contagious, and all the teachers were visibly touched and excited by this heartfelt display of gratitude. They extended their sincere thanks to Mrs. Kanwal and the students for honoring them on this special day, making it a beautiful and memorable celebration.

College Welcome Party:

Date: 30th October, 2023

Time: 11:00 am to 2:00 pm

Grade: XI, XII

Objective of the Event:

The purpose of this event was to warmly welcome and introduce the first-year students to the college community, fostering a sense of belonging and camaraderie.

Event Overview:

On the 30th of October, 2023, the second-year students organized a heartwarming welcome party for their new peers in the auditorium of SOS Hermann Gmeiner Higher Secondary School Multan. The second-year students dedicated their efforts to decorate the hall, creating an inviting and festive ambiance.

The ceremony commenced with the recitation of the Holy Quran, signifying the significance of this gathering. The second-year students extended a warm welcome to the first-year students, presenting them with flowers, party poppers, and snow sprays. Sheharyar and Shahzaib, both from the second year, served as the lively hosts of the event, welcoming not only the students but also the teachers and our esteemed Vice Principal, Mrs. Kanwal Farooq.

The event featured a delightful array of performances, including funny dramas, interviews, dialogues, songs, modeling, dance routines, and even a parody of teachers, adding a touch of humor to the celebration. The second-year students gave humorous titles to the first-year students, further strengthening the sense of unity and camaraderie.

The performances were met with applause and appreciation from both students and teachers, creating a cheerful and memorable atmosphere. The day was concluded with a delectable lunch that all attendees enjoyed.

The first-year students expressed their gratitude to their senior peers who had organized this thoughtful and enjoyable welcome party, leaving everyone in high spirits and fostering a sense of belonging within the college community."
